TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 12 THE CANAL - The work on the Aqueduc has been completed and water will be let in tonight, throughout the entire length of the Canal, and on Thursday or Friday next boats are certainly expected to arrive. The coal agents who have depots here, are preparing to commence operations as soon as the boats come LEAVE WASHINGTON, fon Agnord:

FISH TOWN. Affairs at Fish Town bright ened up somewhat this morning, in consequence of an increase in the arrival of fish, and of a fight, that occurred there. For a short time things were so lively that almost effaced recollections of the scenes and incidents of the Fish Town before the war were revived, and many amusing anecdotes were told, after quiet was restored, of the member of Congress, who, in years gone, by was so infatuated with the delights of Kish Town that he spent most of his time there during the fishing season.

The fight was between J. F. Walsh, ex Captain of the night-watch, and County Constable James T. Burnett. Both parties were to have been tried at the Mayor's Office this evening, for disturbing the peace. Among the arrivals of fish, was one vessel load, from Chapman's landing, containing one hundred thou-

House Cleaning. - The first of May, with its blosoms and birds, trings also to housewives that annually recurring task, and to husbands, infliction, of house cleaning. On such occasions, it is generally understood that no men are wanted about the house after the labor is performed of moving the heavy pieces of furniture out from the walls, until they are to be moved back again. The carpets come up, the ourtains come down; the walls are denuded of ornaments; tubs of water, buckets of whitewash, mops, and brushes, strew the fioor; the furniture is in heaps, the stoves stand in the middle of the room, house-keepers lose their temper, and choas is come again, until order is produced, and the well-shaken carpets are replaced, and all things restored to their positions as before;

In some Northern cities the first of May is described as one of great bustle and stir, it being general moving day, and hundreds of tenements change occupants.

Convention, held on Saturday night last, in the hall of the Sun Fire Company, for the purpose of re-organizing the Fire Department of the city upon the same basis that existed previous to the war, G. T. Whittington, of the Friendship Company, was called to the Chair, and William Jenkins, of the Sun Company, appointed Secretary. Delegates were present from the Friendship and Sun Companies. The only business transacted was the passage of a resolution instructing the Secretary to open correspondence with the Hydraulion Company and the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, with reference to future concert of action among all the constituents of the department.

Logic. - A good joke is told upon Col. B who resides in an adjoining county, a brave and gallant soldier, and a politician of some note, upon his meeting an old former servant who had been chosen a delegate to the recent Radical Convention, and congratulating him upon his elevation to political distinction and his success over a white rival, "Yes massa - replied the old darkey, H beat you and I beat H ..., "argo, I ought to beat you both." There was no more congratulation, and the byestanders had a good laugh at the expense of our friend A TABLW S

SPECULATIONS, &c., &c

WASHINGTON, May 12. - A great crowd as sembled at the Capitol early this morning .-The galleries of the Senate were thronged before the court commenced. A good many Senators and Members of the House were on the floor in conversation, during the half hour before the Senate was called to order.

State delegations, including Congressmen, and prominent members from their respective States have waited upon several of the doubtful Senators. In one or two instances they have received assurances that one or more of the articles, generally, the eleventh, would be voted for by them.

The Managers this morning expressed the belief that there would be one majority for removal certain, but the illness of Senator Howard continues. Should Mr. Howard recover, the Managers express themselves as confident the President's removal will be effected. Mr. Stanbery appeared upon the floor before the Court was called to order, and engaged in

It is said that upon a count this morning it was ascertained that a two-thirds vote could not be obtained for conviction, and the betting is now in favor of acquittal. Upon the motion to adjourn until Saturday, there was scarcely of every kind and description, comprising a a majority.

Those who favor conviction, outside of the Senate, are depressed and consider the game up. It is said that Fowler, of Tennessee, will vote against conviction, having expressed himtheir high trust.

The Chief Justice took the Chair and the Court was opened in due form.

After the reading of the proceedings of yerterday, Senator Edmunds called up the motion at twelve o'clock to day.

Senator Chandler stated that his colleague (Mr. Howard) was taken very sick, and was delirious yesterday. He was anxious to be here when the vote was taken, but could not be except at the price of his life, as his physician had told him. His colleague thought he would be able to be here on Satur-
